NEW YORK BOND MEN

States Acceptance of Anglo-French Loan is a Neutral Transaction

LIST BONDS ON 'CHANGE

Financier States Bonds Represent the External Debts of the Two Nations

SAYS ALL NATIONS WILL LIVE

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—That the acceptance by American bankers of the $500,000,000 Anglo-French five year five per cent. loan was a strictly neutral business transaction designed to promote the commercial prosperity of the United States was the position taken by J. P. Morgan in an address delivered by him today to New York bond men. The bond men represented financial houses interested in the sale of the Anglo-French bonds. The bonds, "when issued," were listed at the New York stock exchange today. The first transaction was for $10,000 at 98.

Simply Credit For Customers.

"The issuance of these bonds simply means our giving to our customers time to pay for the merchandise they are buying," said Mr. Morgan. "The two nations which guarantee these bonds recently have been buying a great deal from us and they have been selling us less. A nation that aspires to be a world power in trade must give their customers time as their credit deserves. The two nations which are about to give more time to pay have been in the past our best and greatest customers. We must learn to give our big and worthy customers credit just as banks extend to their customers credit they desire."

Mr. Morgan said the bonds represented the only external debts of the two nations and being an external obligation they were the first charge on the revenues of the guaranteeing nations.

All Nations Will Live.

"And it is absolutely imperative," he added, "for a nation to meet its external obligations if it is to escape the worst form of bankruptcy and disgrace. Nations must care for their external obligations regardless of what arrangements they make for their internal debts."

In referring to the convertible feature of the bonds, Mr. Morgan called attention to the five year period and said:

"Within five years, please God, the war will be over and well over, and I want to say that nobody is going to extinguish any great nation by this war."

GOVERNMENT TO BUILD OWN
TORPEDO BOAT DESTROYERS

Estimate of Cost From Navy Yards
Are Lower Than Bids From Private Concerns—Figures Are Within Cost Authorized by Congress.

Washington, Oct. 8.—Estimates for construction of the six torpedo boat destroyers authorized at the last session of congress, received today by the navy department from the Mare Island and Norfolk navy yards, proved to be lower than the bids received from private concerns. While no announcement has been made it is considered probable that one or more of the boats will be built at the government plants.

The Mare Island estimate for one vessel is $762,368 or $50,000 less each if two vessels are constructed at that yard, delivery to be within twenty months, while the Norfolk navy yard bid for one vessel at $785,350 for delivery in 26 months. The lowest bid from the private companies was $835,000 from the Cramp yard at Philadelphia for three 20 knot vessels, with $17,500 additional each, for delivery on the Pacific coast. The appropriation bill provides that the vessels shall cost not to exceed $925,000 each, exclusive of armor and armament.

YOUNG WOMAN MURDERED

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 8.—While apparently seeking escape from an enemy who is supposed to have followed her for more than 1,000 miles, Miss Catherine Arnold of Buffalo, N. Y., was slain early today in a small hotel here by a man who boldly walked into the place and asked to see her. She was choked and badly beaten but no one in the hotel heard cries for help or any other commotion. Tonight the police held four witnesses.

PRESIDENT AND FIANCEE INTEREST NEW YORK

WERE THE GUESTS OF MR. WILSON'S CLOSEST FRIEND, COL. HOUSE

Applauded By Thousands at Each Public Appearance—Day's Program Included Long Auto Drive and Theater Party—Mrs. Galt Shows Pleasure at Public's Friendly Interest—Wedding Date Still Unannounced.

New York, Oct. 8.—President Wilson and his fiancée, Mrs. Norman Galt, came to New York for a brief visit to the president's closest friend, Col. E. M. House. From the time of their arrival this afternoon until late tonight they were New York's chief objects of interest and each time they appeared in public they were followed by thousands.

For the first time, since he became president, Mr. Wilson gave way as a center of attraction to another. The people showed anxiety to see him, but their eyes were centered on the woman who, within the next two months, is to become the "first lady of the land."

Both the president and Mrs. Galt were evidently pleased with the reception accorded them. They were slightly shy on their first appearance in public as an engaged couple, but acknowledged applause with smiles. They made no attempt to hide themselves and every time they appeared in public they were side by side.

Members of Theater Party.

The program of the day included a long automobile ride through the parks, a dinner party this evening at the home of Colonel and Mrs. House and a theater party tonight. Tomorrow they leave at 11 o'clock for Philadelphia, where they plan to witness the second game of the world's series. Immediately after that they will go to Washington on a special train.

At the theater tonight "Grumpy" was the play but the president and Mrs. Galt easily were the stars of the evening. As they entered the theater the entire audience arose and applauded. The applause continued until the president, Mrs. Galt and Miss Bones appeared in their box and were seated.

Colonel House and Dudley Field Malone, collector of the port of New York, were at the station to greet the president and his party and hurried them into a limousine. The crowd cheered and applauded and pushed forward for a chance to see the future Mrs. Wilson. She beamed on the crowd and the president looked at her and smiled.

"They are applauding you," he said.

Along streets where everybody seemed to recognize the couple in the automobile the presidential party was driven to the hotel.

After a brief interval the president and other members of the party started on a long automobile ride. Mrs. Galt, Mrs. Bolling, her mother, the president and Dr. Grayson, the president's physician, rode in the car and they were easily recognized. As the party left the hotel they were held up a few minutes by a large corps of photographers. The president and Mrs. Galt sat smilingly side by side as their pictures were snapped.

Many Autos in Pursuit.

Automobile parties sought to get near the president's car to see the couple and as a result before he had proceeded far, upwards of 100 automobiles were in pursuit and the secret service men and city detectives had a hard time keeping them back. The return ride to Colonel House's apartment and the hotel was made just as the sun was going down.

For the dinner and theater party afterwards, Mrs. Galt wore a low cut gown of black, relieved by a large corsage bouquet of red roses. Over her gown she had an elaborate opera cloak of red and black. She wore no ornaments in her hair.

The guests at the dinner party included the president and Mrs. Galt, Mrs. Bolling, Miss Bones, Secretary Rumrort, Dr. Grayson and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Auchincloss, the latter the daughter of Colonel House.

Mrs. House was hostess.

Many had heard in advance that the president and Mrs. Galt would be at the theater and had gathered at the entrance to applaud them. The members of the box party included those at the dinner and Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Field Malone, the latter the daughter of Senator O'Gorman.

Definite plans have not been made for the party tomorrow morning, but it is probable they may do some shopping before leaving for Philadelphia. The president may buy the engagement ring tomorrow.

To Attend Ball Game.

At the baseball game the president and those with him will occupy a box in the center of the stand and the president will throw out the first ball. The president has paid for his baseball tickets himself. He was intensely interested when told that Philadelphia had won the first game of the series having followed the pennant race in both leagues closely.

No definite information was obtainable today as to the date of the wedding, but it was said that an announcement would be made in the near future and that the ceremony would be solemnized not more than two months from now and not less than one month hence.

Miss Edith Straight, R. N., of Passavant hospital, is in Mason City on professional business.

McLean, general managers of three big copper companies here, would return to Clifton and discuss with the striking miners and smelters their grievances and demands for higher wages under certain conditions.

An official of the Arizona Copper company received a message from Manager Carmichael stating that the managers had agreed to confer with the striking workmen providing certain conditions are complied with. One of the conditions—the departure of all outside officials or agents of the Western Federation of Miners—already has been met.

DECIDES ELECTION OFFICIALS ARE LIABLE TO CONVICTION

DENVER, Colo., Oct. 8.—Election officials who conspired to deprive negroes of the right of suffrage through the enforcement of the "grandfather clause" of the Oklahoma state constitution are liable to conviction and imprisonment, according to a decision of the United States circuit court of appeals, announced here today. The grandfather clause was declared unconstitutional by the supreme court of the United States on June 21, 1915.

The appeals' court decision was handed down in the case of Frank Gunn and J. J. Beal, election officials in Kingfisher county, Okla., in the election of Nov. 8, 1910. The defendants were convicted in the United States district for the west district of Omaha and sentenced to the federal penitentiary. The convicted men took their case to the United States circuit court of appeals which affirmed the conviction.

Washington, Oct. 8.—All federal restrictions on the movement of livestock because of the foot and mouth diseases are removed from the states of Indiana, Michigan and Virginia by a department of agriculture order made public tonight to become effective tomorrow. This leaves the whole country, with the exception of Northern Illinois practically free from quarantine.

The Union Stock Yards in Chicago are maintained as a restricted area, handling livestock for immediate slaughter only.

The defense introduced only four witnesses including Judge W. H. Echhorn of Buffalo, Ind. who is presiding, the alleged "school of perjury" which the defense charged was conducted by the state, was incompetent.

It is probable that the case will go to the jury some time Tuesday. Three men will argue for the prosecution and three for the defense. It has not been definitely decided whether the argument would be limited to six or eight hours to a side.

WILSON ACCEPTS RESIGNATION.

BANDITS MAKE BIG HAUL IN HOLDUP OF BALTIMORE & OHIO PASSENGER

Postal Officials State Loot Will Amount to Not Less Than $100,000 and Maybe as Much as $100,000,000.

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 8.—Not less than $100,000 and probably more—maybe as much as $100,000,000—was the amount of loot secured by the bandits who held up Baltimore & Ohio train No. 1, at Central Station, W. Va., early today.

This was the opinion expressed by postal officials in Cincinnati tonight, after they had received official reports from Clerk-in-Charge Haines Huff and the other two mail clerks who were held at bay while the bandits made their escape with 33 registered packages containing money shipped from the United States treasury at Washington.

From statements made by the three postal clerks to Superintendent Clark of the fifth division of the railway mail service and particularly from very full and complete reports made later to acting Inspector-in-Charge Morgan Griswold, of the Cincinnati division of the postoffice inspection service, there is strong indication that the members of the robbers' band, or some of them, were in or closely connected with the mail service or the treasury department.

The registered packages taken were from three pouches which had just been emptied upon a work table by Clerk-in-Charge Huff.

Clerk Huff told Inspector Griswold that it was his recollection that the majority of the packages contained in the three pouches were sent from the office of the comptroller of the currency. Inquiry at the local United States subtreasury disclosed the fact that all money sent out from the comptroller's office are national bank notes which are not negotiable without the signature of officials of the bank to which it is assigned.

National bank notes sent to banks to be issued are technically known as "unsigned currency" but it is stated that there bills are easily made negotiable by the forging of signatures of the bank officials.

SENTENCE FORMER DECATUR MAN TO TEN YEARS IMPRISONMENT

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 8.—Fred Wing, convicted of the murder of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Nancy Crist, on June 15, was sentenced today to ten years imprisonment by a jury in the district court of Kansas City, Kansas. Wing killed his wife's parents. Mrs. Crist and John M. Crist, wounded his wife and shot at his little girl, as the result of family trouble. He will be tried later for the killing of his father-in-law.

RECEIVE WORD THAT M'MILLAN PARTY OF EXPLORERS IS SAFE

Dr. E. O. Hovey Indicates That the Party Has Decided That Crocker Land Was a Myth.

New York, Oct. 8.—Word was received by the American museum of natural history today that Donald B. McMillan and a party of six explorers who left New York in 1913 to explore and chart what was supposed to be Crocker land and that the relief ship Cluett which at the time was sent to the Arctic Ocean, were safe and that the relief ship Cluett, later sent with supplies to the McMillan party, reached its destination.

Dr. E. O. Hovey, commander of the McMillan expedition, in a letter dated August 4th, and sent via Denmark, indicated that the party had decided that Crocker land with a myth.

Rear-Admiral Robert E. Peary (retired) had reported he thought Crocker land had been located by him from the summit of Cape Thomas Hubbard, Greenland. 130 miles to the northwest. Dr. Hovey said the explorers were returning to New York after two years absence. The relief ship Cluett which at one time was thought to have been lost in crossing from New Foundland to Greenland, was reported to have reached a port in Greenland. It will be used to bring back the scientific natural collection of the McMillan party.

WILL DISCUSS MEXICAN AFFAIRS AGAIN TODAY

FOURTH SESSION OF THE PAN-AMERICAN CONFERENCE IS ANNOUNCED

Agreement to Recognize the Carranza Government is Expected—Lansing Has Intimated That Showing Made Justifies Such Action—Announcement Would Add Greatly to Carranza's Strength.

Washington, Oct. 8.—The fourth and perhaps last meeting of the Pan-American conference called by Secretary Lansing two months ago to consider the Mexican situation will be held at the state department tomorrow afternoon. During the last three weeks the secretary and the diplomatic representatives of Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Bolivia, Uruguay and Guatemala have been gathering information with respect to the strength of the different factions in Mexico.

Looks Favorable For Carranza.

The general belief tonight was that the conference tomorrow would result in an announcement based on the information at hand and the guarantees already given that recognition should be extended to the de facto government of Gen. Carranza. It is probable that Secretary Lansing who has conferred personally with the representatives of the different factions will express to the conference his opinion that the Carranza government, having acquired a military supremacy and having promised to protect the lives and property of foreigners should be recognized. The other diplomatic representatives will communicate this together with their own opinions to their respective governments. In the past the action of the United States with respect to recognitions has been followed by the other Latin-American countries.

Conditions Do Not Improve.

The actual extension of recognition which would be done by the accrediting of an American ambassador to the new government would not follow for a few weeks, but the announcement of the intention to recognize the Carranza authority would be expected to have an important moral effect in bringing under its banner many elements hitherto opposed to it.

Conditions in some parts of Mexico show little improvement according to consular reports.

ROCKEFELLER STATES THERE MUST NEVER BE ANOTHER STRIKE

Financier Pays Excellent Tribute to His Father and Mother.

Denver, Colo., Oct. 8.—In an address today to the Denver chamber of commerce, whose guests he was at a weekly luncheon, John D. Rockefeller, Jr., said there never must be another strike in the Colorado fields.

"I have told the officers of the Colorado Fuel & Iron company and the miners employed by the corporation that there is one thing which must never happen again—that is a strike. A strike is wantonly wasteful of human life and property; no party is benefited but all parties are harmed, including the public and the state."

Mr. Rockefeller declared his father was the tenderest, the most democratic of men and related several incidents of the dealings of the elder Rockefeller with his workmen.

"Criticism, maligned and condemned these many years, not only for his business success, but also because of his philanthropic endeavors, there is still not the slightest trace of bitterness in his character and he has nothing but good will for men."

"Whatever I am or may be I owe to my sainted mother and my honored father."

PICK POCKET FOILED.

Chicago, Oct. 8.—A panic ensued in a crowded street car when State Representative James Ryan, grappled with a man he accused of stealing his purse containing fifteen dollars.

The men struggled on the rear platform until the man accused by Mr. Ryan broke away and leaped from the moving car. Policemen on strike duty fired several shots at the man who was captured. Mr. Ryan recovered his purse.

TEUTONS GAIN A FOOTING IN SERBIA

Austro-Germans Have Not Yet Come in Touch With Main Serb Army

LANDING IS PROCEEDING

Indications Are that Greece
Will Maintain a Policy of Benevolent Neutrality

RUMANIA POLICY UNCHANGED

LONDON, Oct. 8.—The efforts of Austria and Germany to force their way through Serbia to reach the near Eastern seas and join hands with their Turkish allies have produced one of the most interesting situations of the war.

The Austro-German troops already have gained a footing on Serbian territory, but they have not as yet come into touch with the main Serbian army, which is entrenched in the mountains just beyond the rivers, while the Anglo-French force, which was landed at Saloniki is making its way northward to assist the Serbians and to protect Macedonia from a threatened Bulgarian invasion.

Landing of Troops Proceeding.

The landing of British and French troops is proceeding despite the change in the Greek government. The minister of the entente powers have asked Greece to define her policy with regard to the Balkan situation but the new premier, Alexander Zaimis, has answered that he will be unable to do this until a meeting of the cabinet is held. There is, however, evidence that Greece will maintain a policy of benevolent neutrality toward the allies.

The press and public of London and Paris, with the change in Bulgaria's attitude fresh in their memory, are demanding that steps be taken to see to it that a similar change does not take place in Athens. It has been suggested that the appearance of an allied fleet in Greek waters would have the effect of settling the question.

No Change in Policy of Roumania.

What assistance Italy will lend her allies in the new venture forced upon them in the Balkans is not disclosed, nor has any change in the policy of Roumania been announced.

The German press suggests that allies, despite the landing of troops in Saloniki, are preparing for more energetic operations against Turkey in the hope of smashing her before German assistance arrives and that Italy may take part in these operations. There still are sharp months of good weather ahead for any new move against the Dardanelles or for operations in other parts of the Aegean district while the Russians under Grand Duke Nicholas are expected to force matters in the Caucasus and the British to push along to Bagdad.

The renewed offensive of the allies along the western front has not yet materialized the recent French attacks in Champagne and Arras apparently having been merely local attempts to capture points of vantage almost continuously under German attack. This is particularly true of the attack against the Hill of Tahure in the center of the German lines in Champagne, which has been almost continuously under German fire since its capture by the French.

Germans Make Little Progress.

A somewhat similar situation seemingly has arisen on the eastern front. The Germans several times have shown signs of developing a big attack against Drinsk, but beyond gaining a few yards of trenches they have made no progress, while from that region right down to Galicia the Austro-Germans have been engaged in meeting strong Russian attacks.

With Poland's mud again clogging the wheels of the armies, it is doubtful whether either side will be able to make an important move for some weeks. But winter with its hard frozen ground is expected to bring a renewal of the offensive by one side or the other.

The German mercantile marine in the Baltic is beginning to feel the effect of the submarine warfare there. Virtually all German shipping in that quarter is being held up by British and Russian underwater craft and the ferry service between Germany and Scandinavia are being carried on by neutral vessels.

MINERS ARE FOR ROCKEFELLER PLAN.

Denver, Oct. 8.—With the announcement of the complete returns from the referendum vote of the coal miners employed by the Colorado Iron & Fuel company, officers of the company declared their Rockefeller industrial plan had been adopted. The total for plan was 3,253; opposed 483.

About 75 per cent of the miners cast ballots in the referendum; 32 more than a majority of the total number of men employed voted for the Rockefeller plan.

And still another indication of the increasing tendency toward "dryness" was recorded in St. Louis Friday, when one hundred and forty delegates representing sixteen states sat down to a banquet given by the Farm Mortgage Bankers' Association of America. It is recorded that no wines or liquors were served at this very elaborately spread banquet.

Former Secretary Bryan and President Wilson undoubtedly have had their differences, but they seem to agree on some things. The former secretary in a statement just made public declares his hope that prohibition and woman's suffrage may not become issues in the next presidential campaign. At least in the matter of seeking to save their party from embarrassment in a declaration on either of these questions next year, Mr. Wilson and his former secretary are still doing "team work."

English Papers Condemn Censorship.

There are hopeful indications that it will not be long until the world at large secures more accurate information about the great war. The British press is now most severely denouncing what the papers term "absurdities of the censorship." The papers declare that the policy of censorship followed has done much to lower the reputation of England abroad for honesty and good sense and has deluded the people at home by hiding from them the realities of war and thus dulling their interest in its progress. The Mail, the Pall Mall Gazette and other influential papers which have heretofore defended the censorship, are now among those most vigorously fighting for a change in policy.

Still Fighting the Jitneys.

In Springfield the consolidated railway company has adopted something of the plan followed in Muskegon, Okla., where jitneys put the street car out of business. This is no means true in Springfield, but the general manager of the company has just announced that twelve large omnibus cars will be placed in jitney service. They will be used in part along streets where street cars are now in operation, but will also traverse other districts. The fight between the street car company and the jitney drivers in Springfield has been of the most active kind and evidently the utility company is not satisfied with the city rules governing jitney service.

Pioneer For Sunday Closing.

Naturally Sheriff Wheeler, of Sangamon county, who is a candidate for the republican nomination for secretary of state, is claiming some of the credit for the great amount of Sunday saloon talk now going on throughout the state. Sheriff Wheeler created consternation in Springfield a few months ago by issuing an order that saloons must close on Sunday, and still further consternation by seeing to it that the order was enforced. So the sheriff can really claim that he is one of the leaders for a state-wide enforcement of the Sunday law, since Springfield was the first large city where such an order was made. Mr. Wheeler probably does not think that the rule he laid down and the subsequent notoriety he gained have injured his political prospects at all, and it is possible that Mayor Thompson may be following the same line of reasoning.

Erasing Imaginary Lines.

The movement to unite three Iowa colleges which are drawing students and support somewhat from the same territory is important in that it indicates something of a widespread movement to lessen the number of small colleges. There is a need for small colleges but not for those institutions that have a constant struggle and have no hope of growing to such an extent that they can receive the support that will permanently end their struggles. By somewhat breaking down the lines of denominationalism it is the belief of educators that colleges which overlap and tend to weaken each other may be consolidated into units which will become much more forceful in the educational world. The movement, like others which tend to ignore very small differences and to give emphasis to large things, shows the forward and upward tendency of educational thought.

Weighty Cases for Supreme Court.

When the Supreme court of the United States assembled Monday for its fall sitting, there were 635 cases on the docket. One of the first cases to be heard is that which involves the right of subway contractors in New York to bring in laborers from outside the state to work on subways. A motion by the United States is pending to advance the case which charges the Hamburg-American and other steamship lines with conspiring to restrain competition in transportation of storage passengers through the so-called "Atlantic conference."

STOLEN. $25 REWARD.

against the St. Louis & Iron Mountain and other roads. The case calls for interpretation of the commerce act and power of the courts to review evidence before the commerce commission. The constitutionality of an Arizona labor law is also up for decision.

A Memorial to Dr. Black.

It is a fitting thing, indeed, that the Morgan County Medical society and the Morgan County Dental society should take the initiative in a movement to do honor to the memory of the late Dr. G. V. Black by the erection of a bronze bust. Since Jacksonville was the home of this eminent physician and scientist for so many years, this is the natural place for such a memorial, and there is no question but that the movement started by the local societies will receive the widespread and hearty support that it deserves. Dr. Plim is a representative of the Morgan County Medical society yesterday well summed up Dr. Black's great work when he said that no man had made a larger contribution to science.

Saving the Children's Teeth.

Medical inspection in the schools at Rock Island has been developed to such an extent that it now includes dental examination. The teeth of every pupil in the schools will be examined by dentists of that city and the report of each child's mouth condition will be forwarded to the parents. There will be no expense for the examination and it will be optional with the parents whether or not they have any suggested work done. There will no doubt be some objections from parents to this inspection work, who will have the suspicion that the dentists are only seeking to increase business. But judged by the work that physicians and dentists do without pay, it is readily believable that the Rock Island dentists are giving their services for the good that they can do.

The people are only beginning to come to a realization of how very closely general health depends upon the condition of the teeth. There are a great many diseases and ailments of the human body which are directly caused by bad teeth—errors which a little attention given in time would have corrected. Early attention given to the teeth of children will not only make less work for the dentists in coming years, but will also add a great deal to the general sum total of health.

WOMEN IN THE NEWS.

Washington. — Washington is greatly interested in two brides, one the daughter of Senator John Sharp Williams, and the other the daughter of Joaquin Calvo, former minister from Costa Rica. Miss Sally Williams yesterday became one of the famous "Mayflower Brides" when she married Lieut. Joel Bunckley, U. S. N. The "Mayflower" brides are the brides of young officers serving on the President's yacht Mayflower. Her predecessors were the former Lucy Hoke Smith, Alice Meyer, daughter of former Secretary of the Navy Meyer, Maitland Marshall and Genevieve Walsh, daughter of Senator Walsh of Montana.

Miss Calvo, who is one of the most charming girls in the "diplomatic set", weds today Mr. Thomas D. Harrington of Boston, and the ceremony takes place at 11, Mgr. Bonzano, the papal delegate, officiating. Miss Calvo was educated in a university here, and has spent much of her life in Washington.

London.—Gossip in London has it that the Prince of Wales will have a British bride. It is said that Queen Mary has made up her mind that the heir to the throne shall never marry any but a Protestant consort. At one time there was considerable talk understood to be founded upon something far more substantial than mere gossip, that the prince had decided for himself that the Grand Duchess Olga, eldest daughter of the Czar of Russia, was the best candidate available. It was believed that Queen Mary had actually consented to negotiations being opened in an unofficial way with Petrograd. Now comes the newest rumor that none but a Protestant will be considered. This restriction, if it really exists, reduces the available royal princesses almost to the vanishing point. In short, it is held that the prince will have to marry on his own soil and that he will, moreover, be reduced to the necessity of wedding a non-royal miss. There is a feeling here that such a development would be extremely popular in England and would give the Crown Prince great popularity.

St. Paul, Minn.—The annual convention of the Minnesota Woman Suffrage Association opened here today. The organization now reaches every city and town in the state, and the leaders are hopeful of beginning a winning campaign in the near future. Many suffrage leaders from other states are here to speak of the outlook throughout the country.

Washington.—"No law can protect the individual except in a certain degree. The intelligence of the consumer must meet it half way," says Miss Annie Lewis Pierce, who for fifteen years has been fighting the food adulterators and misbranders, as the assistant to Dr. Harvey W. Wiley. "Gradually the general public will be educated up to the point where it is able to discriminate between the false and the true. It will cease to throw away its money on harmful or falsely represented products, either in medicines or foodstuffs," Miss Pierce was invaluable to Dr. Wiley during his pure food agitation for the government, and she is still aiding his work through the Wiley publication. She is deluged with letters from women on all sorts of subjects.

MANY ACTIVITIES ARE PLANNED THIS WINTER AT THE Y. M. C. A.

Lines of Work for Every Taste Suggested in Cards Distributed at Rally Last Night by Alva L. Snyder, the Secretary.

"Every member bring in another," urged Mayor H. J. Rodgers, president of the Y. M. C. A. at the rally for the men and boys of the association and quarterly meeting Friday night. The Jacksonville Y. M. C. A. should easily have a membership of five hundred by spring, asserted Mr. Rodgers. The meeting last night was well attended and the program was carried out with energy and dispatch. More than a thousand dollars in the treasury was shown in the financial report, which was read by W. G. Goebel.

"Get into the game," read the inscription on cards distributed by Secretary Snyder to sound the sentiment on association activity for the coming winter. Indicating with a cross the activities they desire to enter members of the association are expressing intent to join two or more of the following: Inner circle or personal worker's group, teachers' training class, gospel team, Bible classes, association quartet, glee club, debating or senate club, Spanish club, camera club, outing club, poultry club and garden club. The outlook for all seems promising and commitments are already at work to see that at the Jacksonville Y. M. C. A. there is "something doing all the time."

Following is the program as carried out Friday evening.

Scripture reading by the Rev. F. M. Rule.

"All Through the Night," and "A Perfect Day," were the numbers by Earl Pond and "My Little Irish Collection," was Mr. Beckman's selection. Before reading "The Inquiry," Mr. Rayhill made a brief talk in which he set forth the rules for correct expression. A "feather fanning contest" and a "funnel blowing contest" created considerable merriment in the gymnasium at the close of the program. Sweet cider and cake were served, after which a number congregated around the piano and enjoyed a hearty "sing."

MOUND WOMAN'S COUNTRY CLUB HELD MEETING.

The Mound Woman's Country club met with Mrs. Gottfried Tondick on the Mound road Friday afternoon. There was a large attendance of members and a most interesting program was given. The main paper of the afternoon was by Mrs. Homer Ranson whose subject was "The School of the Future." Mrs. Ranson discussed the standard school, the consolidated school and the school of the future. The paper showed careful preparation and was given close attention. At the close a general discussion followed. On roll call the topic was the school luncheon. His is topic of much interest pertaining as it did to best manner in which to prepare children's luncheons and what they should consist of. Elegant refreshments were served by the hostess and the meeting was one of much pleasure and profit to the members.

AN AUTOMOBILE COLLISION.

Yesterday morning as Harry Myers was driving his Ford car east on College avenue near East street a tourist from a distant county was driving a new Page car south on East street. Mr. Myers had his side curtains up and failed to see or hear the Page car and crashed into the rear end of it demolishing the running board and fender while his own car suffered a sprung axle and broken lamp. Neither driver was going very fast or the accident might have been worse. No one was hurt and both cars were fully able to proceed under their own power and the stranger went to Newman's garage and had his car put in shape and Mr. Myers' machine will be ready for service in a few days.

CONFERENCE ON RAILWAY SWITCH IS PLANNED.

Luncheon Will Give Opportunity for Discussing Important Subject.

In accordance with the plans recently announced by Carl Weber, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, a luncheon will be held at the Peacock Inn next Wednesday noon, at which the proposition of building a switch to make possible the transportation of coal by rail to the local state institutions will be considered. The matter is of importance because on such an arrangement depends the life of some of the new paving which is now being laid. The members of the state board of administration, city officials, officers of the Railway and Light company, the officers of South Jacksonville, representatives of the Chicago & Alton, and the Chamber of Commerce, have all expressed their willingness to attend the luncheon, and it is believed that it will be possible to come to an agreement in a comparatively short time. All the interests involved will be represented, and it should be possible to remove any difficulties which are now in the way of the project.

When company comes at night, think how cheerful it would be, if, when you hear their ring, you could turn on an electric porch light and usher them into a hall flooded with the next-to-daylight radiance of EDISON MAZDA LAMPS. And then no pause at the door of a dark drawing room—the simple twitch of a switch being the magic which kindles a subdued glow in a shaded electric lamp, while side wall fixtures shed that soft illumination which is the final touch of gentle living.

EDISON MAZDA LAMPS

Made in U. S. A. and backed by MAZDA Service

It is now possible for you to enjoy all these comforts and conveniences at a third of what electricity formerly cost, because EDISON MAZDA LAMPS give three times as much light as the old style lamps with no increase in cost for current. CORONER HELD INQUEST OVER

BODY OF J. ALBERT HEMBROUGH

Jury Finds That Death Was the Result of an Acute Attack of Neuritis of the Heart—Funeral Will be Sunday.

A coroner's inquest was held Friday over the body of J. A. Hembrough, whose death was noted in Friday morning's Journal. The jury was composed of S. J. Baxter, foreman, Clifford Cox, E. E. Richardson, Lloyd Reynolds, J. C. Lair and R. B. Reynolds, clerk. They gave in a verdict "that death was caused by an attack of acute neuritis of the heart."

It was brought out in the testimony that Mr. Hembrough had returned to his home Wednesday from St. Louis where he witnessed the Veiled Prophet's parade. About three o'clock Thursday afternoon Mr. Hembrough complained of pains in his breast, arms and legs. He drank some hot water and seemed to be relieved. Shortly after six o'clock he began to feel worse and called for his brother, saying at the same time that he was losing consciousness. Shortly afterwards he called for a doctor. Dr. Weirich was summoned but arrived fifteen minutes after Mr. Hembrough had died. The passing of Mr. Hembrough removes a man widely known throughout the country as a farmer and authority on stock raising. He was a man of upright life, honest in his dealings and was accounted a citizen of good business judgment and sagacity. He had been a life long member of Asbury church.

Mr. Hembrough was born in this county June 18, 1866, and had practically spent his entire life here. He was a son of Robert and Elizabeth Mawson Hembrough.

Mr. Hembrough was twice married. His first wife was Miss Annie Coates, and they were married in 1893. Three children were born to this union, Alma, Clyde and Robert, all of whom reside in this county. The wife died in 1904. Mr. Hembrough's second marriage to Miss Hannah Vesey was in 1905 and she survives him and one brother, Edward R. Hembrough.

The funeral services will be conducted from the Asbury church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in charge of Rev. W. W. Theobald. Interment will be in the Asbury cemetery.

PHI ALPHA SOCIETY.

Sends Greetings to Founder, Dr. William Jayne, on Occasion of Birthday.

A special feature of the meeting of Phi Alpha society last night was the remembrance of the birthday of Dr. William Jayne of Springfield, which occurred yesterday. He is the only living founder of Phi Alpha society and passed the 89th year of his birth. He was born in Springfield, Oct. 8, 1828, and graduated from Illinois college in 1848. His name was the occasion of much enthusiasm among the Phis and a telegram of congratulation was sent him. Dr. Jayne served as mayor of Springfield for four terms, beginning in 1859, 1876, 1877 and 1882, and has been prominently identified with the business life of that city.

JURY FAVORS MR. NEEDHAM

After considering the evidence and instructions but a few minutes the jury in the Tribwasser-Needham personal injury suit at Virginia returned a verdict in favor of Mr. Needham. They did not consider that Mrs. Tribwasser proved that she had sustained injuries which would justify the collection of damages. W. N. Hairgrove was one of the attorneys for Mr. Needham and Dr. Bowe was also associated with the defense.

A TRIBUTE TO MRS. TROUT.

A letter from an officer of the Illinois Equal Suffrage association to Mrs. J. H. Danskin tells of a plan to pay due honor to Mrs. Grace Wilbur Trout who is soon to retire from the presidency of the association. It is the desire that friends of Mrs. Trout who are familiar with the work she has done for the suffrage movement in Illinois write letters expressing appreciation of the work done. Letters should be addressed to Miss Helen Stewart, 604 Tower Bldg., Chicago, and will be bound with other letters and presented to Mrs. Trout.

SCHOOL BUILDING FIRE.

The East Liberty school building, southwest of Orleans, caught fire just before noon Friday, a section around the flue was burned out and considerable damage was done to the ceiling by water. Holmes and H. Danerberger are directors of the East Liberty district.

AT THE GRAND.

"The Prince of Pilsen," which appeared last night at the Grand theatre, has been called "one of the best musical comedies ever written," and the pleasure which which the play was received in Jacksonville goes to show that this estimate is not far wrong and that Manager Johnson showed excellent judgment in bringing this comedy to the city. Jess Dandy is a star of the first order and the acting of Eda von Luke leaves little to be desired. "The Prince of Pilsen," is a play that will not grow old. Its music is catchy and its comedy is clean. Roars of laughter greeted Jess Dandy when he sang "In Zinzinnati" and responded to each encore with a verse funnier than the last. Smiles greet the rollicking German the moment he appears. His antics start a laugh that is contagious and the climax of fun comes when, saturated with water in the fountain, he attempts to cool his brow from drinking too much of bubbly water.

W. R. MORRISON TO LEAVE.

W. R. Morrison who has been here for the past year superintending the building of the new power house of the Railway and Light company has been called to the main engineering office at Peoria. Mr. Morrison will go to new engineering work of the Illinois Traction System in some other city though he does not know just where he will be located. During their stay here Mr. and Mrs. Morrison have made many friends who will regret to see them leave.

Boy or Girl? Great Question!

This brings to many minds an old and tried family remedy—an external application known as "Mother's Friend." During the period of expectancy it is applied to the abdominal muscles and is designed to soothe the intricate network of nerves involved. In this manner it has such a splendid influence as to justify its use in all cases of coming motherhood. It has been generally recommended for years and years and those who have used it speak in highest praise of the immense relief it affords. Particularly do these knowing mothers speak of the absence of morning sickness, absence of strain on the ligaments and freedom from those many other distresses which are usually looked forward to with so much concern.

There is no question but what "Mother's Friend" has a marked tendency to relieve the mind and this of itself in addition to the physical relief has given it a very wide popularity among women. It is absolutely safe to use, renders the skin pliable, is penetrating in its nature and is composed of those emollients best suited to thoroughly lubricate the nerves, muscles, tendons and ligaments involved.

You can obtain "Mother's Friend" at almost any drug store. The regular price is $1.00 a bottle.

It is prepared only by Bradford Regulator Co., 501 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Avoid the many worthless substitutes. It should be remembered that what is said of "Mother's Friend" is the thought expressed by the thousands of women who have successfully used it and recommended it through two generations.

ALEXANDER WINS FIRST WORLD'S SERIES GAME FROM THE RED SOX

BREAKS IN GAME ARE ALL WITH THE BIG PHILADELPHIAN

Phillies Make Their Three Runs on Five of the Flunkiest Hits the Game Has Ever Known—Two or Three Plays Will Go Down in Baseball History as Bordering on the "Ivory" Class.

The official attendance was 19,343.
Total receipts, $51,066.
National commission's share, $5,106.60.
Players' share, $27,575.64.
Each club's share, $9,191.88.

Every effort was made to get the playing field in condition but it was wet and soggy throughout and had much to do with robbing the game of possible brilliance. There were few thrills other than in the eighth inning but it was there the game was won and lost.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 8.—Grover Cleveland Alexander won his game from the Boston Red Sox today, winning for the Phillies the first World's series contest in which he has participated by a score of three to one.

The victory, however, was far from being the impressive one which his teammates had predicted. The breaks in the game were all with the big Philadelphia. The Phillies made their three runs on five of the flunkiest hits the game has ever known; a Texas leaguer which developed into the first run of the series being the only safe ball driven out of the diamond by a Philadelphia batsman.

Infield Turns Tide for Phillies.

It had been predicted the short outfield would prove the winning factor for the locals, but contrary to all expectations it was the infield, wet and heavy from fifteen hours of rain that turned the tide in favor of the Phillies.

It was a mediocre game, for despite the few errors of commission there were several of omission and two or three plays will go down in baseball history as bordering on the "ivory" class. It was the Red Sox who were guilty of the slips, although the offending individuals were new members of the team.

Two Games Away in Eighth.

"Big Hobbs" Heblitzel, first baseman, ended a first inning attack by his team mates when he lapsed into slumber of his home station and was caught almost flat footed by a quick toss from Alexander to Luderus for the third out. Hooper was on third base at the time and Lewis was at bat. When he was given his delayed chance in the next innings Lewis shot a single between short and third. It was in the eighth inning however, that the game was tossed away. Scott at short for the visitors, stood transfixed as he watched Barry make a wonderful stop of a drive from Bancroft and was so completely overcome by the seemingly miraculous play that he forgot all about second base, allowing Stock who had walked to pull up safely at that station and giving Boston another hit.

Shore's fast ball had a hop on it that was a part with the best Alexander had to offer. Against the five freak hits which he allowed, Alexander was hit safely eight times, each of the blows being a line drive to the outfield. There was not an extra base in any of them however, and no two came in the same inning.

Alexander Nervous at First.

During the first three innings of the game, Alexander plainly was nervous. In two of those innings serious trouble threatened him. Shore, however, offered the locals a battle from the first out to the last and served up the best that was in his salary arm at all times. Four or five times the game hung in the balance. With the score tied in the first half of the eighth and with Lewis on second base, Gardner, of the Red Sox, smashed one of Alexander's fast breaking outbursts far into the outfield, but "Dode" Paskert made a full speed, and saved the game, for spectacular catch while running at the National League contestants.

It was Shore himself who gave the Phillies an opportunity to score their first run. In the fourth Paskert dropped a Texas leaguer back to first. Cravath was sent in to sacrifice and sent a fast bunt directly at Shore. The latter picked the ball up cleanly and had plenty of time to throw Paskert out at second but he shot the ball to first where Cravath was an easy out. Luderus went out from Barry to Heblitzel as Paskert raced to third. Then Whitted "ticked" a fast one into the infield just over the pitcher's head. Barry made a great try for an out but Whitted reached first, a half step ahead of the throw and Paskert was safely across with the first run.

Looked Like Extra Inning Game.

In the eighth Speaker was given a base on balls after Scott was out and went to second on Heblitzel's infield out. Lewis singled and Speaker scored, Lewis taking second on the throw in. It was here that Paskert saved the game with his startling catch of Gardner's drive. The way Shore and Alexander were working at this time indicated the game might go into extra innings but in the Phillies' half of the eighth came the decision. Alexander had proved an easy out. Shore grew careless and passed Stock. Bancroft shot true hit over second which gave Barry the opportunity to make a miracle stop with his bare right hand. Barry, recovering his balance, started to toss the ball to second to force Scott, but the bag was bare. Too late, Scott realized his duty and started on a dead run for the keystone. In a fateful moment Barry shot the ball to him but Stock was safe and there were two on instead of two out.

Shore Becomes Unsteady.

At this juncture Shore became unsteady and passed Paskert. The bases were full and Gavy Cravath, the home run champion of the National league, with a particular fondness for the short fences of the Phillies Park was at the bat. The best Cravath could do, however, was to send a slow bouncer to Scott at third. It seemed to many in the stand that Scott had time for the play at the plate, but he shot the ball to first instead and Stock raced over with the winning run. Then Luderus hit a weak grounder toward Shore. The ball took a bad roll in the mud just as Shore was reaching for it and Bancroft came over for the third and last run of the game.

Manager Carrigan sent two pinch hitters to the plate in the ninth but could not get a man to second.

Alexander gave but two bases on balls against Shore's four and he struck out six men while Shore fanned but two. Boston had nine men left on bases as against Philadelphia's five.

Red Sox Still Favorites in Betting.

That the game was regarded largely as a freak episode in world's series baseball is shown tonight by the fact that the supporters of the defeated Red Sox have lengthened the betting odds they are willing to give on that team for the remainder of the series.

There is much speculation tonight as to the batteries for tomorrow's game. It seems taken for granted that Moran's choice for the Phillies would be either Chalmers or Mayner, while Carrigan will send either Foster or Leonard in for the Red Sox.

Phillies Take Advantage of Breaks.

The lack of keen playing judgment and the unbalanced defensive strength of the Red Sox was the direct cause of the American League champions' defeat while the ability of the Phillies to take advantage of the slightest opening gave them the runs which brought victory. Offensively the Boston combination proved that it had an edge on the Moran brigade, even with Alexander in the box.

Shore tonight was given almost as much credit by the followers of the game as the winning star of the Phillies. Although unsteady at times, his mental attitude was not helped by the manner in which his team mates played both on the bases and in the field and in the end this erratic attack and defense finally broke the Red Sox twirler. At the beginning Shore had a clearly perceptible advantage over Alexander. He was cool and confident and had a masterly control while his opponent was nervous and failed to deceive the batsmen with his slants and curves.

As the contest progressed and the Phillies escaped from one predicament after another Alexander steadily improved while Shore began to show signs of the strain until the breaking climax came in the eighth.

Errors of Judgment Lose Game.

The loss of the game cannot be placed entirely upon the shoulders of Shore, however. Heblitzel's bad play in the opening inning when he was caught off first base seemingly shut off a splendid chance of a run. In the fourth inning, Shore himself made a blunder when he opened the way for the first of the Phillies' runs by fielding Cravath's sacrifice to first instead of throwing Paskert out at home.

The most glaring error of judgment was when Scott failed to cover second on Barry's great one-handed stop of Bancroft's drive.

Heavy Hitters Fall Down.

A notable feature of the play was the failure of both teams to hit safely when men were on the bases. Time after time the batters of both clubs put up weak efforts when a clean smash would have brought the runner home. This was particularly true of the Red Sox. Both the pitchers kept the ball low all through the game, cutting the corners of the plate for most of their called strikes.

If the infielders, particularly that of the Red Sox, had worked with more smoothness and a better mutual understanding the result would have been far more uncertain.

Tris Speaker, the hardest batter of the Red Sox, failed to secure a single hit off Alexander. His record for the day was two passes to first and two flies to left field in four times at bat. Cravath, the home run king, was equally ineffectual with the budgeon. In four trips to the plate he had one pass, a sacrifice out on a deep fly to center and an easy chance for Scott. Lewis with two hits in four times at bat carried off the hitting honors, both of his singles being clean drives to the outfield.

Battery Work Feature of Game.

Alexander however, fanned Lewis twice, the second time with Heblitzel on second and but one out. None of the players questioned a single decision of the umpires. But two bases were stolen during the game, due in part to the excellent throwing of Cady and Burns and the fact that the paths were soft and slow. Although rain last night and early today threatened to cause a postponement of the contest, the game eventually was played under a brilliant October sun with scarcely a cloud in the sky. The small grounds were packed to their utmost capacity, but the fact that the park is the smallest on any big league circuit probably made today's crowd the smallest that ever has witnessed a world's series contest.

First Inning.

First half—Hooper singled over second. The Boston crowd howled. Scott sacrificed. Alexander to Luderus, Hooper going to second. Speaker walked. Alexander appeared nervous. Heblitzel forced Speaker, Bancroft to Niehoff. Hooper went to third. Heblitzel was caught off first, Alexander to Luderus. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Second half—Stock out on a foul to Cady. Bancroft flied out to Barry. Paskert fouled to Heblitzel. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Second Inning.

First half—Lewis shot a hot single to left. Gardner sacrificed Alexander to Luderus, Lewis went to second. Barry hit to Alexander who threw to Stock to head off Lewis at third. THE EXPATRIATES

Your own country you've renounced, Henry James; it with language you have renounced, Henry James; you have handed out a slam to your good old Uncle Sam, and we do not care a penny, Henry James. You and old Jack Johnson, both, Henry James, swore a great and mighty oath, Henry James, to abjure your native land; it was ostracized and banned, by the pair of you, self-cannibals, Henry James. It is sad, and yet a joke Henry James, that the author and the Smoke, Henry James, should line up on foreign shores, there to shut and bolt the doors—what a brace of two-by-fours, Henry James! We have lost our Hank and Jack, Henry James, and we hope you won't come back, Henry James; you have snubbed us pretty hard, soaked us one beneath the guard, and we turn you down, old pard, Henry James. You and Johnson may abide, Henry Jim, far across the raging tide, Henry Jim, roaming Europe hand in hand, while this desolated land goes ahead to beat the band, Henry Jim!

SOX WIN THIRD OF CHICAGO SERIES

PIERCE WEAKENS IN THE EIGHTH INNING.

Rally in Eighth Nets Five Runs for Rowland's Men—Zimmerman Gets Four of the Cubs' Five Hits—Series Now Stands 2 to 1 in Favor of Sox.

Chicago, Oct. 8.—The Chicago White Sox won the third game of the series for the city Championship from their National League rivals, the Cubs, 5 to 2. The series now stands 2 to 1 in the American League's favor.

The game was a pitching duel between Faber and Pierce, in which the latter weakened in the eighth. Weaver opened the inning with a single, to left and E. Collins walked. Felsch bunted in front of the plate for a sacrifice and Pierce's throw was too late to force Weaver at third. Jackson doubled down the left field foul line, scoring Weaver and E. Collins. After J. Collins' infield out, Blackburne singled to left scoring Felsch and Jackson and score a minute later on Schalk's single.

THE FIRST GAME IS OVER: WHO WILL WIN SECOND?

Well, the first game of the 1915 World's series is a thing of the past and Philadelphia, National league champions scored first blood. The day was anything but a baseball day, the field being soaked with a rain that had fallen for almost fifteen hours. The game was not of championship class and bears out what has already been said in this paper that neither team is up to the class of championship teams of the last decade.

The victory of Philadelphia was not much of a surprise to the fans throughout the country. It was a foregone conclusion that Moran would use Alexander, acknowledged the best pitcher in either league this year. The victory of Alexander was not as impressive as many of the Philadelphia adherents expected it to be. In fact it was only by the break in the luck that the Phillies won.

Boston got to Alexander for a total of eight hits and scored one run. All of the hits made by the Red Sox were clean drives while the five scored by Philadelphia were for the most part weak hits to the infield which were converted into hits by virtue of the heavy condition of the diamond.

Contrary to expectations Manager Carrigan picked Shore, a southpaw, to oppose Alexander "the great," in the opening game. Shore was in fine form, thought his unsteadiness was his undoing in the eighth. He however, pitched great ball and probably will be the hero of the series from a Red Sox standpoint. It is not likely that any of the other Red Sox pitchers can do any better, if they do as well as Shore did. In addition to this Ruth, Leonard or any other twirler selected to hurl for the Red Sox will be opposed to Mayer, Demaree or some other Philie pitcher who is not in the same class with Alexander. It may readily be seen that they will have a big advantage.

Ruth probably will be Carrigan's selection for today's game. On form Boston should win for Ruth especially in his god form for a hard battle. However, Mayer might surprise the wise ones or Demaree who has had World's series experience might deliver. The series is just started and far from finished. If Philadelphia should win today Boston will have a hard task for it will give Alexander a chance to rest and come back in the opening game at Boston Monday. If such a thing should happen that Philadelphia wins two out of the first three games they should win the title for we believe Alexander is equal to carrying the burden of a short series and pitching every other day.

On the other hand the hitters of both teams must be reckoned with. Yesterday Speaker and ravath did not get a hit. Both are probably the heaviest hitters on their respective teams. Cravath was up against a left hander and they probably had his number. But he is going to hit before the series is over and so is Speaker. It is pretty sure that one of these players will break up a game before the championship is decided.

AUTO DRIVERS QUALIFY.

New York, Oct. 8.—Several additional drivers qualified today for the 350 mile automobile race for the Astor cup, to be run at the New Sheepshead Bay speedway tomorrow and the prospects were that the race, postponed last Saturday on account of bad weather would be run under favorable conditions. A total of 21 drivers had qualified with a possibility that another would qualify tomorrow morning.

LAGGING LINES ARE BROUGHT IN TOUCH WITH CIRCLE OF ACTIVITY

Bradstreet's States Performance Follows Promise at a Rapid Pace in the Economic Situation.

New York, Oct. 8.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

"In the economic situation performance follows promise at a rapid pace and as unfavorable factors are eliminated even lagging lines are brought in touch with the circle of growing activity. Industry shows notable activity. Ship yards are working at top speed, steel mills are producing at a rapid rate, blast furnaces are working at an unparalleled rate, eight of the country's crops are of record proportions, this week's bank clearings reached peak point, textile mills are on full time, woolen mills are busy, plans making flour millers are pushing orders on a night and day basis, machine tool shops are turning down orders because of inability to make deliveries, building values for September show a sharp gain over last year. Weekly bank clearings, $4,861,657,000."

Boston Fans Take Red Sox Defeat Calmly.

Boston, Oct. 8.—Business in many places in this city paused today while thousands of persons learned of the progress of the opening world's series baseball game in Philadelphia between the Philadelphia Nationals and the Boston Americans. The Red Sox defeat was received calmly, the crowds having lost much of their enthusiasm as opportunity after opportunity for a Boston score passed without profit.

Arrangements for play by play reports of the game today were the most elaborate ever made in this city. At Braves' Field, where the local end of the series will be played, at Fenway Park and at four auditoriums several thousand persons paid admission fees to follow the details of the play.

Mrs. Hannah Brainer of Grace chapel was a visitor in the city Friday.

Edwin O. Gable, M. D.

have been cured by this system of treatment. The doctor says he has treated many cases of heart trouble where patients had been suffering for a long time and given almost immediate relief, because when the nerve power is increased around the heart the blood begins to circulate more normally, and also causes the heart muscles to take on renewed life and strength. He has cured many cases of chronic kidney trouble where the kidneys were clogged up and the little tubules would not functionate normally. With this new system of treatment, they get wonderful and quick relief. This is true with other organs, especially stomach troubles, dyspepsia, gas and fermentation. As soon as the congestion is relieved and the nerve power is restored to the stomach, the natural gastric juice is thrown out and does its work without assistance. In the cure of irritation of the bladder, chronic bladder troubles, by this method, when poison is removed from the water, and the secretions are thrown off normally there is immediate relief to the bladder symptoms. Chronic constipation comes from weak muscles and weak nerves of the bowels. His combined treatment gives prompt relief to this trouble and also to irritation and disease of the nervous system, and where the patient is nervous and high strung, exciting and has insomnia, sick headache, palpitation and is easily frightened, etc.

He wants to explain, personally, these important facts to every person around Jacksonville suffering with chronic disease. He claims that most chronic diseases can be cured unless the tissues are too much destroyed. You will have to come to him for personal examination. He never accepts cases until he has seen and examined the patient. He must know the condition of the blood and kidneys, the heart, the nerves and circulation. He undertakes no cases that he thinks are incurable. He cannot afford to take a case unless he feels sure of helping it. His reputation and the reputation of the Neuropathic system of treatment are at stake. He wants to call special attention to chronic eye troubles, deafness, catarrh and throat troubles. He has cured many such cases since he has been coming here. The Neuropathic treatment is a treatment above other treatments in these troubles. He will give a personal examination FREE to all sufferers this trip. Please remember the date and send word to your neighbors and friends of this visit. There may be some of them suffering with chronic trouble that is gradually, day by day, sapping their vitality. They do not know where to go for relief or what to do. Give them a chance and see if this treatment won't help them. Dr. Gable sees patients personally and all are treated with greatest confidence. He invites you to call.

ANDRAS PROPERTY WILL BE DIVIDED INTO BUILDING LOTS

Story is That Walton Bros. Have Made Contract for Purchase and Will Open a New Addition.

Although full details are not available, it is understood that John C. Andras recently made a contract for the sale of the property he has on South Main street and South East street, to the firm of Walton Bros. of Kentucky. This firm purchased the Morrison property on Grove street some years ago and opened an addition there. Afterward they laid out an addition at Meredosa and have operated quite extensively in this particular line of land merchandising. The property of Mr. Andras has a frontage on South Main street from the brook of Franklin street and extends east across Mauvaisterre street to East street.

The South Main street property is the site of the old Andras homestead where Mr. Andras' parents lived for a great many years. The house in its day, while not large, was accounted one of the most desirable in Jacksonville and was approached by a series of flagstone steps, the lot being very high and terraced almost the entire frontage on Main street. The tract which fronts on East street has always been used as a pasture. Mr. Andras it is understood has had opportunities to sell the property a great many times but because of certain family associations has up to this time declined all offers.

The South Main street property has been wholly unproductive for a great many years and the rent from the east tract was also slight. The owner has also spent a great deal of money on the property, as he has paid for paving on three sides, but it was not a question of expense with Mr. Andras who is well fixed in this world's goods, and he held the property simply because he wanted to.

But recently he decided that the time had come to make some disposition of the property and he is understood to have reached an agreement with Walton Bros. who intend to make a building addition out of the two tracts and sell off the lots. They doubtless figure that because of the location so convenient to the business district that there will be a good demand for the lots. It is not often that a residence building district so near a public square can be opened, for as a rule, additions to residence districts must be at some point in the outskirts of a city.

Eva Carls from Albert Carls, cruelty and drunkenness.

THREE GOVERNORSHIP CAMPAIGNS ARE ON

Special Interest Taken in State Affairs Because Results May Give Some National Campaign Indications.

Washington, Oct. 8.—Massachusetts, Maryland and Kentucky hold the center of the political stage this fall, for they are the only states that will hold elections prior to the spring primaries of 1916, to furnish straws that may show which way the presidential wind blows. The Democrats in these three states have asked the White House for help in their local campaigns for they realize that anything approaching an endorsement or a repudiation of their party as a result of the state elections might have an important effect on the political future. A few speeches are wanted to set the pace for the voters, but President Wilson will undoubtedly adhere to his plan of keeping out of the state fights this fall. His advisers have told him that the results in all three states will turn chiefly upon local issues.

On November 2, Massachusetts, Maryland and Kentucky will elect governors, and minor elections will take place in some other states, but only this diverse tri will attract national attention. The two national committees are extending assistance, and speakers of national reputation are booked. In both Maryland and Massachusetts, the primary vote was unusually heavy and this is taken to mean that a large off-year vote will be cast next month.

The contest in Massachusetts will be watched with special interest. Though normally Republican, it has a Democratic governor in Hon. David I. Walsh. That the Republicans have been able to control the legislature and the minor state offices is an indication in the minds of the Republican national leaders that the Bay State will swing back to absolute Republican control. The Republican candidate, Hon. Samuel W. McCall, was prominent when in Congress, and he has undivided support.

The Republicans manifest high hopes of again winning in Maryland. These hopes are based in part on the ability of their candidate, Ovington E. Weller, but more especially on the rift in the Democratic ranks. The Democratic nominee is Emerson C. Harrington, who was backed by Senator John Walter Smith. Blair Lee, also a U. S. senator and a machine man of the most conventional type, made a fight for the nomination for himself, but the Smith forces were too much for him. It is said that the Lee forces are not fully in line. The present governor, Goldsborough, is a Republican who slipped into victory because of a Democratic split, and Mr. Weller, who has a reputation for practical work as chairman of the Maryland Highway commission, may have the same luck. The result will at least be close in Maryland.

The Republicans are not so hopeful in Kentucky, although they are claiming more than a mere chance. They are opposed by a strong Kentuckian, Augustus O. Stanley, formerly in Congress. Edwin P. Morrow, is the Republican nominee. It is assumed he will be aided by the temperance vote, although neither Stanley nor Morrow espoused prohibition in the primaries.

WAVERLY.

Puts Men Through Final Practice
for Game—Lineups Announced.

Coach S. R. Derby, Lombard: "Tell the people that we have come all the way from Galesburg to take home the bacon. Our men, excepting for a few minor bruises, are all in splendid condition. No one can prophesy about a game but our men are fighters and Illinois will know there has been a game after the struggle has ended. We are down here to win and our men have confidence."

Coach W. T. Harmon, Illinois: "Illinois is ready for the battle. Despite the fact that we have had no game to test our strength this year, the men have been training hard. If grit and hard playing can win a game, Illinois can be counted on to set the big figure on the locals' side. We feel that Illinois will have to play some football to win from a team the strength of Lombard."

DR. HARKER SAYS COLLEGE UNION PLANS ARE PERTINENT

Subject of Interest Because There
Are Too Many Institutions in Some Localities.

Mention was made yesterday of the proposed consolidation of three educational institutions in Iowa, Parsons college at Fairfield, Simpson at Indianola, and Iowa Wesleyan at Mt. Pleasant. Dr. J. R. Harker is a member of the board of education of the Methodist Episcopal church and a member of a special committee which has had the matter of the consolidation of certain schools, along with other matters, under discussion.

It is a recognized fact that in the middle west, especially in some parts of Illinois and Iowa, that schools are too close together and overlap in the territory from which they seek to draw support. The three schools mentioned have about the same number of students in attendance, 150 to 200, and the endowment of each is about the same, $250,000. Thus the total endowment of the three is about three-quarters of a million. There is quite a difference in the value of the equipment of the three institutions. Parsons college ground and buildings have an estimated value of $400,000; Simpson college valuation is about $300,000 and that of Iowa Wesleyan about $250,000 less.

The question of uniting the institutions has been under consideration for nearly two years and the first thought was the consolidation of Parsons and Simpson colleges. Subsequently there came the discussion of having Iowa Wesleyan also join in this movement. Such a movement would not be without precedent, even in Iowa, for it was only a few years ago that St. Charles college consolidated with Morningside college at Sioux City.

One reason for special emphasis being given to the question of union now is because of the proposed educational campaign to run through the years 1916, '17 and '19. This campaign is to be conducted somewhat along the general lines of the missionary forward movement and among other points it will seek to impress that there is no need of so many educational institutions and that for the sake of economy and efficiency that there should be a smaller number more generously supported. This will be an interdenominational movement, with the hope of bettering general educational facilities.

CLEANING RESERVOIR IS A BIG JOB.

Commissioner Vasconcellos Believes
200 Loads of Mud Will be Removed.

The work of cleaning the reservoir in the west part of the city is well under way but it will not be concluded for some time. In accordance with the plan of Commissioner Vasconcellos, the draining of the reservoir began Tuesday night and the last of the water was out Friday morning. There was so much mud in the bottom of the reservoir that while the last of the water was being pumped out Friday it was necessary for two men to be stationed in the reservoir to keep the drain open. A runway will be erected from the center of the reservoir to the level of the side and the dirt will be hoisted to this runway and then transferred and dumped into wagons.

Mr. Vasconcellos believes that there are two hundred loads of dirt in the reservoir, but this amount may seem less as the work of removing it progresses. To provide sufficient pressure while the reservoir cleaning is in process the stand-pipe is in use and this gives a higher pressure than the reservoir itself. The consumption of water now is not as great as in the summer months and practically all the supply is coming from the north side station, although it may be necessary occasionally while the cleaning work is in progress to pump from the south side, but unless there is rain the city supply will not be muddy or discolored.

JUSTICE COURTS.

The case of Mattie E. Berry, whose trial was set before Justice Dyer Friday was continued until Monday, Oct. 18, at the request of her attorney, Mrs. Berry was arrested on a warrant sworn out by David Pierson charging her with larceny.

Before Justice Coons Friday David Pierson's case on the charging of using abusive and threatening language was called. Pierson had been arrested on complaint of Mrs. Mattie E. Berry. It developed that Mrs. Berry had gone to St. Louis. Justice Coons dismissed the case.

Justice Dyer had a case brought before him late Thursday afternoon that required a lot of deep thinking. Kenneth Keplinger, of Waverly, sued Robert Etter and Robert Wild for damages charging them with killing a calf while hunting on his farm. After hearing the evidence Justice Dyer took the case under advisement. Friday he was still unable to figure who had killed the calf so he discharged the defendants.

LIBRARY REPORT SHOWS LARGE NUMBER OF BORROWERS

More Than Three Thousand Books Were Borrowed Last Month— Medical and Dental Societies Will Place Bronze Bust of Dr. G. V. Black in Library.

At the meeting of the library board Friday afternoon the report presented by Miss Barette, the librarian, showed that forty-nine cards were issued to new borrowers during the month of September and that the total number in the same month last year was thirty-four. The report showed further that last month 3,097 books were borrowed, and that the record for September, 1914, was 2,756.

Dr. T. J. Pitner, as a representative of the Morgan County Medical society, was present to ask the authority of the board for the erection in the library building of a bronze bust in memory of the late G. V. Black. The movement for the erection of this memorial is being fostered jointly by the Morgan County Medical society and the Morgan County Dental society, and the library was chosen as the most fitting place for its erection. Dr. Pitner said that the societies had decided upon this project because of the suitability of erecting a memorial for Dr. Black here in the city which was so long his home. He said that no man had made a large contribution to science than Dr. Black, not only in dentistry, in which he was particularly interested, but also in pathology.

The board by resolution granted the request at the same time expressing appreciation that the library had been chosen as the place for erection of such a memorial, the board deeming that the bronze bust would add materially to the impressiveness of the library surroundings. Practically all the other business before the board was of a routine character.

The librarian's report indicated that the books borrowed were divided as follows: General works, 1; bound periodicals, 1; philanthropy, 32; religion, 46; sociology, 166; language, 19; science, 86; useful arts, 92; fine arts, 123; literature, 171; history, 78; travel, 50; biography, 67; fiction, 1,694; magazines, 262; rent fiction, 209; total, 3,097.

COME!

The Copper-Clad Range is the only Range in the world that is lined throughout with copper and can never rust out. It has "killed" every other range on the market with this one feature, and it has many other features almost as revolutionary. It is as handsome as a fine piano, is easily kept clean and will last a lifetime. Come in today and join us in a cup of good drip coffee with alfalfa biscuits and see the COPPER CLAD at work.
